

The action of Sinclair Broadcasting to force all of its stations to use an hour-long, politically partisan advertisement for its preferred candidate is a total misuse of its license. The FCC allowing the use of the airwaves to be consolidated and controlled by fewer companies is a serious threat to democracy and the free exchange of ideas and opinions.

Norma H. Schatz